

A graphic design artist specialising in surface design for fabrics, bags, t-shirts, home decor items, and miscellaneous ad specialties like mugs and mousepads,

I spent the first fifty years of my life in the media industry in sales and marketing. While I loved selling radio, television and newspaper and managing sales teams, I had to find most of my creative outlets in hobbies. A few hobbies like stained glass designing, painting and sewing fulfilled some of my creative outlets, however I could only work on them in my personal spare time.

After moving to Alaska at 50 years of age I found the love of my life and Alaska provided more artistic inspiration than anyone could need. After the loss of my love in 2012 I moved back to Iowa to heal and move forward with my life. I decided to pursue graphic art as my career, recently becoming involved in surface pattern design, my new love.

I have a beautiful, simple life creating all forms of my artwork alongside my sweet little lab dog Sunshine who fills my days with her joyful antics keeping me laughing and all our days Sunny, pun intended.
